

Miguel Morales, MD

Education:

- Medical Degree: University of Guadalajara, Guadalajara, Jalisco, 1979-1985.
- Residency: Internal Medicine, Hospital General de Occidente, Zapopan, 1986-1989.
- Fellowship: Gastroenterology, National Autonomous Univ. of México, 1989-1991.
- Fellowship: Endoscopy, National Institute of Nutrition, Mexico City, D.F., 1991-1992.
- Masters in Medical Science: University of Guadalajara, 1993-1995.

Experience:

- Gastroenterologist & Endoscopist, Hospital General de Occidente, 1992 to present.
- Adjunct Professor of Medicine, Hospital General de Occidente, 2006 to present.
- Professor of Medical Sciences, University of Guadalajara 1993-1993.
- Professor of Nutrition and Gastroenterology, Univ. of Valle de Atemajac, 2000-2003.
- Chief of Instruction, Investigation, and Ethics, Hospital General de Occidente, 2003.
- Diplomate in Bioethics, University of Anáhuac, México, D.F., 2000-2001.

Organizations:

- American Gastroenterology Association
- American Motility Society
- Association of Physicians of the National Institute of Nutrition
- Guadalajara Society of Bioethics, President 2000-2003
- Internal Medicine Association of Mexico
- Jalisco Society of Gastroenterology, President 2001-2002
- Latin American Society of Neurogastroenterology
- Medical Association of the Hospital Angeles del Carmen
- Medical Association of Jalisco
- Mexican Association of Gastrointestinal Endoscopy
- Mexican Association of Gastroenterology
- Mexican College of Gastroenterology and Digestive Endoscopy
- Pan American Association of Bioethics

Awards:

- Best work presented, National Congress of Gastroenterology, México, D.F., 1989.
- Honorable Mention, Gastroenterology Exam, National Institute of Nutrition, 1992.
- Twenty years of service with the Secretary of Health, México City, D.F., 1998.
- Advisor in Gastroenterology, Mexican Counsel of Gastroenterology, 2006-2008.

Credentials:

- National Celular Profesional #1163358, 1987
- Jalisco Celular Profesional #8115(12-1), 1993